NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
(UNAUDITED)

NOTE 1 – NATURE OF BUSINESS

Nature of Business

Lans Holdings, Inc. is in the business of providing secure payment and communication solutions. The Company's aim is to make it easier for sellers to start selling, and buyers to buy with confidence. The Company intends that its solutions will be used to enable businesses to process payments more efficiently whether online or in a retail store front. The Company intends to offer white label solutions for payment service providers to enable business to consumer and business to business payments through physical POS, mobile devices, online and software integrations. The Company also intends to provide business processing outsourcing through its Fractional I.T. Services, and complaint ready hosted solutions through its Infrastructure on Demand.

Lans Holdings is focused to provide emerging payment "breakthrough" technology that motivates and rewards clients for adopting more secure infrastructure to support their businesses.

Going Concern

The Company has incurred losses since inception and has negative working capital. These factors create substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. The accompanying financial statements have been prepared assuming that the Company will continue as a going concern. The financial statements do not include any adjustments that might be necessary if the Company is unable to continue as a going concern. The ability of the Company to continue as a going concern is dependent on the Company generating cash from the sale of its common stock and/or obtaining debt financing and attaining future profitable operations.

Management's plans include selling its equity securities and obtaining debt financing to fund its capital requirements and ongoing operations; however, there can be no assurance the Company will be successful in these efforts.

NOTE 2 – SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of Presentation

These financial statements of the Company have been prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles in the United States and are expressed in US dollars. The Company's fiscal year end is November 30.

Interim Financial Statements

The accompanying unaudited interim financial statements of the Company have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("US GAAP") and the rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC"), and should be read in conjunction with the audited financial statements and notes thereto. In the opinion of management, all adjustments, consisting of normal recurring adjustments, necessary for a fair presentation of financial position and the results of operations for the interim periods presented have been reflected herein. The results of operations for interim periods are not necessarily indicative of the results to be expected for the full year. Notes to the financial statements which would substantially duplicate the disclosure contained in the audited financial statements for the most recent fiscal year end November 30, 2016 have been omitted.

Table of Contents

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with US GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. The Company regularly evaluates estimates and assumptions related to long-lived assets, and deferred income tax asset valuation allowances. The Company bases its estimates and assumptions on current facts, historical experience and various other factors that it believes to be reasonable under the circumstances, the results of which form the basis for making judgments about the carrying values of assets and liabilities and the accrual of costs and expenses that are not readily apparent from other sources. The actual results experienced by the Company may differ materially and adversely from the Company's estimates. To the extent there are material differences between the estimates and the actual results, future results of operations will be affected.

Financial Instruments

The Company's financial instruments consist of cash, accounts receivable, prepaid expenses, accounts payable and accrued expenses, amounts due to officers, notes payable, convertible debentures, derivative liabilities and deferred revenue. The carrying amount of these financial instruments approximates fair value due either to length of maturity or interest rates that approximate prevailing market rates unless otherwise disclosed in these financial statements.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Company considers all highly liquid instruments with maturity of three months or less be cash equivalents.

Software Development Costs

Costs incurred internally in the research and development of the software products and significant enhancements to existing software products are expensed as incurred until the technological feasibility of the product has been established. Technological feasibility occurs shortly before internally developed products are available for general release. Costs paid to third parties for products in which technological feasibility has been established are capitalized upon purchase of software.

Property and Equipment

Property and equipment is stated at cost, less accumulated depreciation and any impairment in value. Long-lived assets, including property and equipment, are assessed for impairment whenever events or changes in business circumstances arise than may indicate that the carrying amount of the long-lived asset may not be recoverable. Depreciation is calculated on a straight line basis over its estimated useful life.

Intangible Assets

Software, licenses and other rights have been capitalized. Amortization is calculated on a straight line basis over its estimated useful life.

If the total of the expected undiscounted future cash flows is less than the carrying amount of the asset, an impairment is recognized for the excess of the carrying value over the fair value of the asset.

Income Taxes

The Company utilizes the liability method of accounting for income taxes. Under the liability method deferred tax assets and liabilities are determined based on the differences between financial reporting basis and the tax basis of the assets and liabilities and are measured using enacted tax rates and laws that will be in effect, when the differences are expected to reverse. An allowance against deferred tax assets is recognized, when it is more likely than not, that such tax benefits will not be realized.

Any deferred tax asset is considered immaterial and has been fully offset by a valuation allowance because at this time Company believes that it is more likely than not that the future tax benefit will not be realized as the Company has no current operations.

Revenue Recognition

The Company derives revenue from subscriptions for software that provide secure payment solutions, from the provision of customized development services and from the provision of secure on demand infrastructure.

The Company recognizes revenue when persuasive evidence of an arrangement exists, products are fully delivered and services have been provided, the sales price is fixed or determinable and collectability is reasonably assured. Advance payments from customers are deferred and recorded in deferred revenue. During the period ended February 28, 2017, the Company received $2,970 from customers for services to be provided by the Company. Revenue will be recorded by the Company when the service is provided.

All of the Company's revenues during the three months ended February 28, 2017 resulted from three customers.

Stock-based Compensation

The Company measures and recognizes compensation expense based on estimated fair values for all share-based awards made to employees and directors, including stock options.

The Company estimates the fair value of share-based awards on the date of grant using an option-pricing model. The Company uses the Black-Scholes option-pricing model as its method of determining fair value. This model is affected by the Company's stock price as well as assumptions regarding a number of subjective variables. These subjective variables include, but are not limited to the Company's expected stock price volatility over the term of the awards, and actual and projected employee stock option exercise behaviors. The value of the portion of the award that is ultimately expected to vest is recognized as an expense in the statement of operations over the requisite service period.

Options granted to consultants are valued at the fair value of the equity instruments issued, or the fair value of the services received, whichever is more reliably measurable.

Loss Per Common Share

Basic earnings (loss) per common share is computed by dividing net income (loss) available to common shareholders (numerator) by the weighted average number of shares outstanding (denominator) during the period. Diluted EPS gives effect to all dilutive potential common shares outstanding during the period using the treasury stock method and convertible preferred stock using the if-converted method. In computing diluted EPS, the average stock price for the period is used in determining the number of shares assumed to be purchased from the exercise of stock options or warrants. Diluted EPS excludes all potential dilutive shares if their effect is anti-dilutive. As of February 28, 2017, the Company had 15,201,710 (2016 – 5,999,707) potentially dilutive shares outstanding.

Subsequent Events

The Company has evaluated all transactions through the date the financial statements were issued for subsequent event disclosure consideration.

Table of Contents

Recent Accounting Pronouncements

The Company has implemented all new accounting pronouncements that are in effect and that may impact its financial statements.

In August 2014, the Financial Accounting Standards Board issued Accounting Standards Update 2014-15, "Presentation of Financial Statements - Going Concern". The Update provides US GAAP guidance on management's responsibility in evaluating whether there is substantial doubt about a company's ability to continue as a going concern and about related footnote disclosures. For each reporting period, management will be required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events that raise substantial doubt about a company's ability to continue as a going concern within one year from the date the financial statements are issued. The amendments in this Update are effective for the annual period ending after December 15, 2016, and for annual periods and interim periods thereafter. The Company adopted this pronouncement effective for the period ended February 28, 2017. The adoption did not have a material impact to the financial statements.

NOTE 3 – SOFTWARE ASSETS

On September 22, 2016, the Company entered into a Software Purchase Agreement (the "Software Agreement") with two related parties Transaction Data USA Inc. ("TDUSA"), whose CEO is the President of the Company, and Melcent Technology SRL ("Melcent"), a significant shareholder of the Company. Pursuant to the Software Agreement, the Company acquired a PSWITCH software application (the "Software"), including the invention, source code, object code, components and tools. In exchange for the Software, the Company issued to each of TDUSA and Melcent, 375,000 shares of the Company's newly created Series B Preferred Stock. The asset acquired was recorded at the fair value of the 750,000 shares of Series B Preferred Stock of $5,820,000. At February 28, 2017, the 750,000 shares of Series B Preferred Stock had not been issued and $5,820,000 of stock payable to related parties was accrued by the Company.

At November 30, 2016, the Company's uncertain future revenues generated by the asset indicated that the carrying amount of the long-lived asset may not be recoverable. The Company performed an impairment test as prescribed by ASC 985-20 which resulted in an impairment of $5,820,000.

Total	$ 8,961	$ 3,813

During the three months ended February 28, 2017 and February 29, 2016, the Company recorded amortization of debt discount of $50,320 and $0, respectively.

- a) On March 23, 2016, the Company issued a convertible debenture for $6,000. Pursuant to the terms of the agreement, the note is unsecured, bears interest at 8% per year, and is due one year from the date of issuance with the option of extending for an additional six months at the holder's discretion. At the maturity date, the unpaid amount of principal can be converted at the holder's option at a price of 50% of the ask price at the date of conversion. The embedded conversion option qualifies for derivative accounting and bifurcation under ASC 815-15 "Derivatives and Hedging". The initial fair value of the derivative liability of $9,815 resulted in a full discount to the note payable of $6,000 and interest expense of $3,815. At February 28, 2017, the Company had amortized $4,688 of the discount to this convertible debenture and had accrued interest of $450 related to this convertible debenture.
- b) On June 15, 2016, the Company issued a convertible debenture for $10,000. Pursuant to the terms of the agreement, the note is unsecured, bears interest at 8% per year, and is due on December 31, 2016. On December 31, 2016, the Company missed the required payment of all principal and accrued interest, resulting in the interest rate increasing to 15% per year going forward. At the maturity date, the unpaid amount of principal can be converted at the holder's option at a price of 50% of the ask price at the date of conversion. The embedded conversion option qualifies for derivative accounting and bifurcation. The initial fair value of the derivative liability of $14,129 resulted in a full discount to the note payable of $10,000 and interest expense of $4,129. NOTE 6 – DERIVATIVE LIABILITIES

The embedded conversion options of the Company’s convertible debentures described in Note 5 contain conversion features that are accounted for as derivative liabilities. The fair value of these liabilities will be re-measured at the end of every reporting period and the change in fair value will be reported in the statement of operations as a gain or loss on derivative financial instruments.

The Company uses Level 3 inputs for its valuation methodology for the derivative liabilities and embedded conversion option liabilities as their fair values were determined by using the Black-Scholes option pricing model based on various assumptions. The model incorporates the price of a share of the Company’s common stock (as quoted on NASDAQ), volatility, risk free rate, dividend rate and estimated life. Significant changes in any of these inputs in isolation would result in a significant change in the fair value measurement. As required, these are classified based on the lowest level of input that is significant to the fair value measurement. The following table shows the assumptions used in the calculations:

	Expected Volatility	Risk-free Interest Rate	Expected Dividend Yield	Expected Life (in years)
At November 30, 2016	131% - 223%	0.36% - 0.68%	0%	0.08-1.00
At February 28, 2017	113% - 280%	0.40% - 0.88%	0%	0.06-1.00

Item 2. Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations

Forward-Looking Statements

Certain statements, other than purely historical information, including estimates, projections, statements relating to our business plans, objectives, and expected operating results, and the assumptions upon which those statements are based, are “forward-looking statements” within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933 and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. These forward-looking statements generally are identified by the words “believes,” “project,” “expects,” “anticipates,” “estimates,” “intends,” “strategy,” “plan,” “may,” “will,” “would,” “will be,” “will continue,” “will likely result,” and similar expressions. We intend such forward-looking statements to be covered by the safe-harbor provisions for forward-looking statements contained in the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, and are including this statement for purposes of complying with those safe-harbor provisions. Forward-looking statements are based on current expectations and assumptions that are subject to risks and uncertainties which may cause actual results to differ materially from the forward-looking statements. Our ability to predict results or the actual effect of future plans or strategies is inherently uncertain. Factors which could have a material adverse effect on our operations and future prospects on a consolidated basis include, but are not limited to: changes in economic conditions, legislative/regulatory changes, availability of capital, interest rates, competition, and generally accepted accounting principles. These risks and uncertainties should also be considered in evaluating forward-looking statements and undue reliance should not be placed on such statements. We undertake no obligation to update or revise publicly any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise. Further information concerning our business, including additional factors that could materially affect our financial results, is included herein and in our other filings with the SEC.

Company Overview

We are in the business of providing secure payment and communication solutions. We pioneer solutions innovation by rewarding merchants to migrate to EMV (credit card chips). We provide white label solutions for payment service providers to enable business to consumer and business to business payments through physical POS, mobile devices, online and software integrations. We are focused to provide emerging payment solutions that motivate and reward our clients for adopting more secure payment systems in their businesses. Our mission is to revolutionize how payment solutions are delivered to businesses by providing flexibility, efficiency and creative control to our partners. We make it easy for sellers to start selling, and buyers to buy with confidence. Our solutions are used to enable businesses to process payments more efficiently whether online or in a retail store front.

We have only generated a small amount of revenue from our payment processor business and from our solutions outsourcing business. In order to implement our business plan, we will need to raise additional capital. We estimate that we will need approximately $375,000 in the next twelve months. These funds will be used to cover our debt obligations, overhead, consulting fees, marketing expenses and IP development, along with our general working capital needs. If we are unable to raise money, we will not be able to able to service our existing and prospective customers.

Results of operations for the three months ended February 28, 2017 and February 29, 2016

We generated $45,135 in revenues during the three months ended February 28, 2017, as compared with $34,337 in revenues for three months ended February 29, 2016. All of our revenues in 2017 resulted from our three customers. We expect that our client base will expand and provide more revenues for the remaining quarters in 2017, provided we receive adequate financing.

Our cost of revenues was $79,860, for the three months ended February 28, 2017, resulting in a gross loss of $34,725, as compared with cost of revenues of $9,500 for the three months ended February 29, 2016, resulting in gross profits of $24,837. Our cost of revenues mostly includes monthly consulting invoices from Melcent Technology, which started in February of 2016. The cost of revenues was significantly less in 2016 because only one month of expenses was incurred, and opposed to three months in 2017. We do not expect any consistency in our gross profit margins in 2017 with those of prior years due to our infancy in operations and the varied services that we offer our clients.

Table of Contents

We incurred operating expenses in the amount of $276,407 for the three months ended February 28, 2017, compared with operating expenses of $98,074 for the three months ended February 29, 2016. Our operating expenses for the three months ended February 28, 2017 mainly consisted of $110,717 in stock based compensation, $73,751 in consulting fees, $36,616 in support and maintenance, $19,427 in audit fees, $13,205 in professional fees and $7,850 in finance fees. Our operating expenses for the three months ended February 29, 2016 mainly consisted of $40,074 in consulting fees, $32,572 in development costs and $13,795 in professional fees.

We anticipate our operating expenses will increase as we undertake our plan of operations. The increase will be attributable to undertaking development of our payment processor business along with the ongoing professional fees associating with being a reporting company under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

We incurred other expenses of $156,819 for the three months ended February 28, 2017, as compared with other expenses of $7,496 for the three months ended February 29, 2016. Our other expenses for the three months ended February 28, 2017 was attributable to $159,634 in interest expense and $50,320 in accretion of discounts on convertible debentures, offset up $53,135 in the change in fair value of derivatives. Our other expenses for the three months ended February 29, 2016 was a result of interest expense. We expect that our interest expenses will increase in the future as result of our newly acquired debt, and any additional debt we take on in our financing efforts.

We incurred a net loss in the amount of $467,951 for the three months ended February 28, 2017, as compared with a net loss in the amount of $80,733 for the three months ended February 29, 2016. Our losses for each period are attributable to operating expenses together with a lack of significant revenues.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

As of February 28, 2017, we had $30,506 in current assets consisting of cash, accounts receivable and prepaid expenses. Our total current liabilities as of February 28, 2017 were $7,224,019. As a result, we have a working capital deficit of $7,193,513 as of February 28, 2017.

Operating activities used $177,936 in cash for the three months ended February 28, 2017, as compared with $40,800 for the three months ended February 29, 2016. Our negative operating cash flow in 2017 was mainly the result of our net loss of $467,951, offset by excess derivative liability of $142,460 and stock based compensation of $110,717. We primarily relied on cash from loans to fund our operations during the period ended February 28, 2017.

Financing activities provided $187,692 in cash for the three months ended February 28, 2017, as compared with $32,258 for the three months ended February 29, 2016. Our positive operating cash flow in 2017 was mainly proceeds convertible debentures. The terms of the convertible debentures are contained in Note 5 to our financial statements, incorporated herein.

Despite the loans and convertible notes we have issued, and while we have generated some revenue from our payment processor and outsourcing businesses, we will need approximately $375,000 in financing to implement our business plan. These funds will be used to cover our debt obligations, overhead, consulting fees, marketing expenses and IP development, along with our general working capital needs. If we are unable to raise money, we will not be able to service our existing and prospective customers. Thus, the success of our business plan beyond the next 12 months is contingent upon us obtaining additional financing. We intend to fund operations through debt and/or equity financing arrangements, which may be insufficient to fund our capital expenditures, working capital, or other cash requirements. We do not have any formal commitments or arrangements for the sales of stock or the advancement or loan of funds at this time. There can be no assurance that such additional financing will be available to us on acceptable terms, or at all.

Off Balance Sheet Arrangements

As of February 28, 2017, there were no off balance sheet arrangements.

Going Concern

We have negative working capital and have not yet received significant revenues from sales of products. These factors have caused our accountants to express substantial doubt about our ability to continue as a going concern. The financial statements do not include any adjustment that might be necessary if we are unable to continue as a going concern.

Our ability to continue as a going concern is dependent on our generating cash from the sale of our common stock and/or obtaining debt financing and attaining future profitable operations. Management's plans include selling our equity securities and obtaining debt financing to fund our capital requirement and ongoing operations; however, there can be no assurance we will be successful in these efforts.

Critical Accounting Policies

In December 2001, the SEC requested that all registrants list their most "critical accounting policies" in the Management Discussion and Analysis. The SEC indicated that a "critical accounting policy" is one which is both important to the portrayal of a company's financial condition and results, and requires management's most difficult, subjective or complex judgments, often as a result of the need to make estimates about the effect of matters that are inherently uncertain. Our accounting policies are discussed in the footnotes to our financial statements included in our annual report on Form 10-K for the year ended November 30, 2016, however we consider our critical accounting policies to be those related to revenue recognition, stock-based compensation and intangible assets.

Item 3. Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures About Market Risk

A smaller reporting company is not required to provide the information required by this Item.

Item 4. Controls and Procedures

Disclosure Controls and Procedures

We carried out an evaluation of the effectiveness of the design and operation of our disclosure controls and procedures (as defined in Exchange Act Rules 13a-15(e) and 15d-15(e)) as of February 28, 2017. This evaluation was carried out under the supervision and with the participation of our Chief Executive Officer and our Chief Financial Officer. Based upon that evaluation, our Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer concluded that, as of February 28, 2017, our disclosure controls and procedures were not effective due to the presence of material weaknesses in internal control over financial reporting.

A material weakness is a deficiency, or a combination of deficiencies, in internal control over financial reporting, such that there is a reasonable possibility that a material misstatement of the company's annual or interim financial statements will not be prevented or detected on a timely basis. Management has identified the following material weaknesses which have caused management to conclude that, as of February 28, 2017, our disclosure controls and procedures were not effective: (i) inadequate segregation of duties and effective risk assessment; and (ii) insufficient written policies and procedures for accounting and financial reporting with respect to the requirements and application of both US GAAP and SEC guidelines.

Remediation Plan to Address the Material Weaknesses in Internal Control over Financial Reporting

Our Company plans to take steps to enhance and improve the design of our internal controls over financial reporting. During the period covered by this quarterly report on Form 10-Q, we have hired a CFO, which we believe provides better segregation of duties and additional staff to monitor our disclosures, but we have otherwise been able to remediate the material weaknesses identified above. To remediate such weaknesses, we plan to implement the following changes during our fiscal year ending November 30, 2017: (i) appoint additional qualified personnel to address inadequate segregation of duties and ineffective risk management; and (ii) adopt sufficient written policies and procedures for accounting and financial reporting. The remediation efforts set out are largely dependent upon our securing additional financing to cover the costs of implementing the changes required. If we are unsuccessful in securing such funds, remediation efforts may be adversely affected in a material manner.

Changes in Internal Control over Financial Reporting

There were no changes in our internal control over financial reporting during the three months ended February 28, 2017 that have materially affected, or are reasonable likely to materially affect, our internal control over financial reporting.
